The owner concerned should produce at the time of showing cause all the evidence upon which he intends to rely in support of his defence. He should also indicate in the written explanation whether he does not wish to be heard in person before the case is adjudicated.

If no cause is shown against the action proposed to be taken within one month of the issue of this notice or the owner concerned does not appear before the adjudicating officer when the case is posted for hearing, the case will be decided ex parte on its own merits.

Allegations against the owner

1. On receiving information on 9th August 1967 that a registered post parcel insured for Rs. 200/- posted from Bombay by one Shri K. C. Jain of A/1 Shantinagar, Kurla, Bombay-70 bearing No. 546 dated 2nd August 1967 suspected to contain contraband wrist watches, had been received in the Dilkusha Post Office, Lucknow, the Customs and Central Excise Officers requested the Sub-Post Master concerned to give delivery of the said parcel to the addressee only in the presence of Customs and Central Excise Officers.

2. The post master detained the parcel and issued an intimation to the addressee Shri Gian Chand Gaggi of the Cannst. Board office Lucknow to take delivery of the parcel. The addressee, however, did not turn up to take delivery of the parcel, and therefore a notice was served upon him by the Customs and Central Excise Officers but he disowned the parcel and stated that he did not know the consignor and also showed his complete ignorance about the whole affair. The said parcel was therefore got opened on 11th August 1967 in the post office before two independent witness. The search of the said parcel resulted in recovery of 95 ladies and gents wrist watches of foreign origin valued at Rs. 15875/-. Since there were no vouchers or any other document in the parcel, and the addressee denied having ever placed any order for the said watches, the suspicion that the watches were smuggled one, was further confirmed.

3. The aforesaid watches were therefore seized under section 110 of the Customs Act, 1962 in the reasonable belief that these were imported into India in contravention of the provisions of restrictions imposed under clause 3 of Import Trade Control Order 1955 (amended upto date) issued under section 3(1) of the Import and Export Control Act 1947—such restrictions deemed to have been issued under section 11 of the Customs Act 1962 as made applicable by section 3(2) of the Import Export Control Act 1947 read with section 160(3) of the Customs Act, 1962.

4. Investigations were also made at Bombay at the post office from where the parcel of watches was booked to ascertain the whereabouts of the consignor but of no avail.

5. The seized watches are dutiable also.

The post master detailed the parcel and apprised the Customs Officers of the fact that he had already served an intimation on the addressee on 5th August 1967 to take delivery of the parcel.

2. As the addressee did not turn up, a notice was served on Shri Krishan Lal, 30 Chandernagar Market, Lucknow to be present on Singarnagar post office, where the said parcel was proposed to be opened on the date. 5. Investigations were also made at Bombay at the Post Office at which the parcel of watches was booked, to ascertain the whereabouts of the consignor but of no avail.

6. The seized watches are dutiable also.
